5. For specific commercial applications like hospitals, government buildings, etc. where additional tests and certifications might apply, the commercial warranty is not valid. Any of these specific commercial applications have to be reviewed on a case-by-case basis by our quality department.

We strongly recommend contacting your distributor before starting your commercial project to ensure you choose the right floor and the right accessories.

What to do in case of an unlikely defect:

You should contact your dealer (or CPF Floors LLC directly) within 2 weeks of the date upon which the defect first became known. Documents that should be submitted to CPF Floors when reporting the claim are a filled out claim form (can be obtained by mailing info@cpffloors.com) accompanied by a copy of the original purchase receipt, the sticker on the box and some pictures of the defect. CPF Floors LLC has the right to inspect the floor and the way it was installed, on the spot.

If a product problem covered by the warranty is acknowledged by CPF Floors LLC, the manufacturer will offer a re- placement of the defective floor boards in the same design (or equivalent when not available). If applicable, a refund for the installation costs will be provided following the next principle: year 1 – 2: 100% of the value of the installation cost; year 3 – 4: 50% of the value of the installation cost; year 5 – 6: 25% of the value of the installation cost; year > 6: 0% of the value of the installation cost. The original receipts of the professional installation must be presented to obtain an installation refund.

The product warranty does not cover any labor cost associated with replacement of damaged material covered by the warranty. This warranty does not cover any consequential or special incidental charges, damages or losses.

Liability Limitations
